BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE PROVIDENCE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL'S PARENT TEACHER STUDENT ORGANIZATION (PTSO)

A MOMENT TO PAWS...

BY DR. HARRILL

Dear PHS Parents and Families:

As we close out the first semester, we have an opportunity to reflect on how things are going and how they have progressed at Providence. School is running very smoothly, even though we have had some real challenges with the nation-wide teacher shortage causing very large classes at Providence. In addition, we are challenged by the “unfinished learning” some students have due to school closure during the Pandemic. We have a number of new students and students new to the country. We are creatively working to meet all of these challenges. I’m so proud of the progress our students are making and for their efforts. Our teachers are doing an awesome job at working with them.

At school, we are continuing to focus on teaching college and career-ready skills that students need to have before they graduate. We are embedding these learning experiences into every class. As we have visits or receive emails from our graduates who are now in college, we are always eager to hear what skills were taught at Providence which are most helpful in college. Responsibility, organization, being able to read the text and discern the important details, as well as research and writing skills are the top ones our former students explain are most helpful. The junior paper (even though those words might strike anxiety in most 11th graders) has been a process we have heard was very helpful to our graduates in their first year in college. One student told us that she has written several research papers similar to what was expected in the “junior paper” in her first semester in college. Another student said that college was really hard, but he was “absolutely” prepared because of what he learned at Providence. One of our current students who is also enrolled in the dual enrollment program at community college, eagerly announced to her class that she’s going to ace her community college course because of what she has already learned at Providence. This is music to our ears.

In addition to college readiness, we have also focused on career readiness and job-market skills. Our new Career Development Coordinator, Ms. Folk, has been working with students to find internships, explore career inventories, and consider job opportunities or career fields.

We know that there is always room for growth with our students and within our school. We will continue to work hard so the results continue to be noteworthy and the students reap the benefits of a strong, comprehensive high school education. This semester, in addition to the other accolades received from the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction which I shared with parents earlier in the year, we have been recognized for the following accomplishments:

- The HIGHEST performing comprehensive High School in CMS with a score of 93 and grade of A (the highest grade that can be earned).
- We EXCEEDED Expected Growth, which means that students grew more than they were predicted to grow (based on their individual state test scores from previous years). We are most proud of this achievement. "Growth" is an indicator that the state uses to determine the difference between the performance a student should make in a course as compared to their actual performance in a course.
- ALL of our subgroups (White, Asian, Black, Hispanic, Economically Disadvantaged, Multilingual Learners, and Students with Disabilities) EXCEEDED Expected Growth.
- The HIGHEST Advanced Placement exam (AP) pass rate of any comprehensive high school in CMS (84.5%).
- The HIGHEST average SAT score of any comprehensive high school in CMS (average score of 1244).
- The HIGHEST ACT average in CMS (average score of 24.5).

There is no school quite like Providence High School. We are the best school in CMS and among the top in NC and the country. But, I want to highlight something else that makes our school special. The athletic, fine arts, and extra-curricular opportunities in which our students are involved create a full, comprehensive environment for students to develop leadership, teamwork, and other skills. This edition of the Paw Prints is full of recent honors, awards, and activities featuring our students. I hope you enjoy reading all about them.

Thank you for sharing your children with us and thank you for helping us make our first semester a huge success. Go Panthers!

Sincerely,
Dr. Harrill

PROVIDENCE WELCOMES NEW TEACHERS AND STAFF

NICHOLAS BLACKWOOD

Nicholas Blackwood is the new Director of Bands at Providence High School. He previously taught music at Rama Road Elementary and sidelined as a Percussion Instructor and Jazz Band Director for Providence for the last nine years. Mr. Blackwood plays the drums, sings, and is a sound engineer for his church. He and his wife, Alexandra, enjoy riding motorcycles, attending Broadway performances, and traveling somewhere new each year.

NICHOLAS BONEY

Coach Nick Boney teaches Health/Physical Education and serves as the Head Boys Basketball Coach. He loves playing golf, although admits he's not really good at it. His wife's name is Toni, they have a son named Tyler, a grandson Drew Nicholas, and a grand-daughter on the way, Gia Nicole. His daughter-in-law is Rachel. He loves collecting cigars from different countries. He also loves the New York Giants, New York Yankees, and "unfortunately" (his words), the New York Knicks.

PROVIDENCE WELCOMES NEW TEACHERS AND STAFF

GRACE CAMERON

Grace Cameron has been teaching social studies for four years. Originally from Wilmington, North Carolina, she graduated from Appalachian State University in 2019 with a Bachelor's Degree in Secondary History and Social Studies Education. While she enjoyed her time in Boone, North Carolina, exploring the outdoors and playing club basketball, her highlight was completing her student teaching in San Jose, Costa Rica. She is excited to be here at Providence this school year! Go Panthers!

ALEX DICKS

Alex Dicks is from from Cleveland, Ohio. This is her third year teaching and first year at CMS and Providence. Teaching is Alex's true passion, and she is incredibly thankful for Providence's community and support during her first month. When she is not at school, she can usually be found trying local restaurants, hiking, attending a Charlotte Football Club game, or spending time with her wonderful partner, Dan.

PROVIDENCE WELCOMES NEW TEACHERS AND STAFF

KIMBERLY FOLK

Kimberly Folk graduated from University of North Carolina (Charlotte) with a Master's in Counseling. She has 13 years of experience as a school counselor in CMS. Kimberly is passionate about helping students explore future career paths. She enjoys cycling, yoga, reading, and cheering for the Wolverines (Go Blue), Tarheels, and Wolfpack.

MICHAEL HUSSMAN

This is Michael Hussman's, sixth year of teaching English. He went to the University of South Carolina and earned two degrees: a Bachelor's Degree in English and a Master's Degree in Teaching. He recently moved to Charlotte from Michigan, and is really enjoying the weather and city life. Outside of work, some of Michael's interests are reading, sports (especially basketball), video gaming, working out, hiking, and backpacking.

PROVIDENCE WELCOMES NEW TEACHERS AND STAFF

MEAGAN LINEBERGER

Ms. Lineberger is excited to join the faculty at Providence High School as the Introduction to Engineering Design teacher as well as a marching band instructor after school. As an alumna of Providence High School herself, she knows what a great place it is to learn and grow. Megan attended the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill for her Bachelor's Degree in Education, followed by the University of Virginia for her Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction. This is her seventh year of teaching, with experience from South Charlotte Middle School and East Mecklenburg High School. In her free time she enjoys being outdoors with her two dogs, Carter and Cosmic. She was recently married in November!

MCKENNA MARTIN

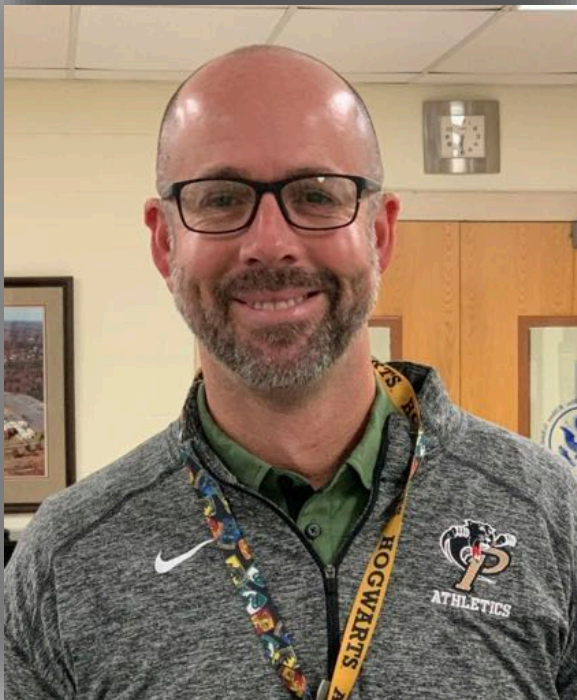

McKenna Martin teaches Earth/Environmental Science here at Providence. She grew up in Mooresville, North Carolina and spent a lot of her days riding the waves on Lake Norman. This is her first year at Providence after relocating from Raleigh. She graduated as a Teaching Fellow from North Carolina State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Science Education and minor in Geology and Biological Sciences. Outside of school she enjoys any type of outside activity, sports, documentaries, reading, and Do It Yourself projects.

PROVIDENCE WELCOMES NEW TEACHERS AND STAFF

MICHAEL MCGINTY

Michael McGinty teaches Spanish at Providence. He has taught Spanish for the past 10 years in Virginia and in North Carolina. He has a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from John Carroll University and a Juris Doctorate Degree from Michigan State Law School. His interests outside of teaching are spending time with family, boating, kayaking and hiking. He has one son who lives here in Charlotte and is 29 years old. He is enjoying his experience here at Providence High School!

JOSHUA OXENDINE

Josh Oxendine is the Head Coach for Varsity Men's and Women's Tennis teams. He also facilitates AP Computer Science. He is married and has three daughters: Riley, Mackenzie, and Madeline. In his spare time, he enjoys cooking, working out, and working on his rose garden. He is excited to be a part of such a wonderful and welcoming school.

MARI RUBIN

Mari Rubin graduated from the University of Texas San Antonio. After taking some time to raise her family, she began her teaching career in 2010. She has had the opportunity to teach in Texas, North Carolina, Virginia and South Carolina, but she is so happy to be back at Providence!

JANE SICKLES

Prior to her arrival at the World Language Department at Providence, Jane taught French at Phillip O. Berry Academy of Technology (all levels), Community House Middle, South Mecklenburg High School, South Charlotte Middle, Marie G. Davis IB and JT Williams IB. In addition, she began her career teaching French at Carolina Day School in Asheville. She is IB certified.

Before pursuing her passion for French, she received her undergraduate degree in English from Ohio Wesleyan University. She then obtained her French degree from the University of North Carolina and teaching certification from University of North Carolina (Charlotte). She then immersed herself in the French language and culture at the Institut de Touraine in Tours, France.

SONIA SERRATA

Ms. Sonia Serrata recently moved to Charlotte, North Carolina to be near her family and friends. She has been teaching Spanish for almost 20 years. Prior to coming to Providence, she spent a few years at GMA in Greenville, SC. She also taught at Chapin High School, in Chapin, South Carolina. Before that, she taught in Santa Fe, New Mexico and Texas, her home state. When she is not teaching, she loves spending time with her children. She has three beautiful adult children: one son and two daughters. She loves dancing, cooking, baking, reading her latest finds from the library, and enjoying the wonderful restaurants in Charlotte.

ALEXANDRA SIMS

Ms. Alexandra Sims is the new choral director at Providence. She is originally from Apex, North Carolina and she attended University of North Carolina (Greensboro) for both her Bachelor's Degree and Master's Degree in Music Education. Currently in her 15th year of teaching, she began teaching middle school chorus in 2008 at Northwest School of the Arts, then taught chorus from 2012-2022 at Parkwood High School in Union County. Ms. Sims enjoys reading, cooking, gardening and spending time with her husband and two kids. She's excited to be on faculty at Providence and to be part of a thriving fine arts department.

PROVIDENCE WELCOMES NEW TEACHERS AND STAFF

FREDDIE SWISSELM

This is Freddie Swisshelm's first year teaching Beginning Visual Arts as well as Contemporary Craft and Design here at Providence. She graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Studio Art/Art History from University of North Carolina (Chapel Hill) and later received her graduate certificate in Art Education from University of North Carolina Charlotte prior to becoming a teacher. She began her career in CMS at Eastway Middle School, where she taught for nearly seven years before making the switch to high school. Outside of teaching, she loves traveling as well as spending time at home with family, friends and her two dogs, Beckley and Bear.

Welcome

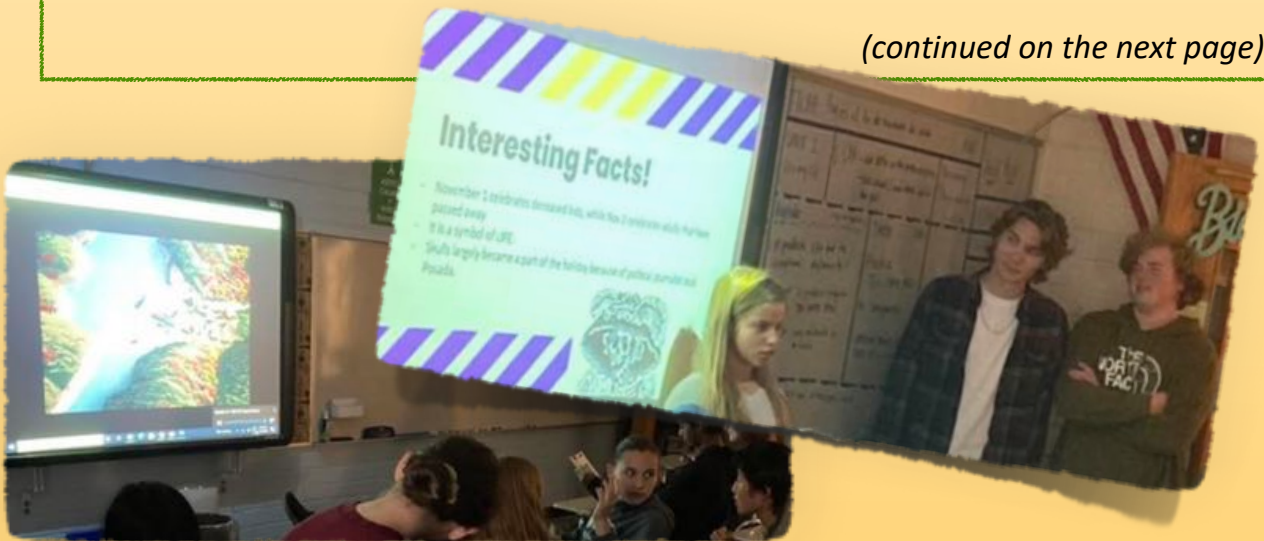

The word "Welcome" is written in a large, white, sans-serif font. It is set against a background of vibrant, multi-colored brushstrokes in shades of purple, blue, yellow, and red, creating a dynamic and artistic effect.

SPANISH CLUB

The Providence Spanish Club has been having a blast this year! It was great to see our club expand with new members and welcome back existing ones. We started off the year strong with our annual Día de los Muertos social in October. We learned about the history of Día de los Muertos, made skulls, ate themed snacks, and drank hot chocolate. We attended Hola Fest, a Hispanic heritage celebration in Charlotte where we enjoyed Hispanic food, culture, and music. We had a great time socializing with the other language clubs at our interclub meeting where we watched a movie together and had some snacks. At our most recent meeting, we watched the World Cup and cheered on Spain during their match against Japan— all while making poinsettias. It has been an exciting year so far and we look forward to our future events!

GERMAN CLUB

Hallo German Club Families!

We've had a great first half of the year here in German Club. We started out strong with the Fight the Flame 5k, in which several of our runners won gold in their age groups. We also continued the tradition of our ice cream social, in which our new members got to meet the returning members. We welcomed our new German Honors Society members from our German III classes as well, and we look forward to more events we can do with our new recruits. We've enjoyed some quality meals together, from the Oktoberfest Potluck to the winter social, where we enjoyed some nice desserts as well as a White Elephant gift exchange.

Our German students were visited by Saint Nikolaus and Krampus, and their shoes were filled with sticks and candy, as keeping with one of the ways we immerse ourselves into German Culture. We've also served our community, when our Officers went to the Levine Children's Hospital and volunteered to spend some time with the children on Halloween. We plan to continue with a session at Bright Blessings in the coming weeks. Overall, we've had an amazing past few months here with German Club, and we look forward to many more.

THEATER

This fall, Providence High School Drama Department has been very busy! First, the drama students attended the North Carolina Theater Conference on Saturday October 29th, and presented the play Dark Road in Kings Mountain, North Carolina. The play received many honors, among which was first place at the regional level and given the honor of competing at the state level on November 18th in Greensboro where they won Excellence in Interpretation of Text! As well as those honors, additional awards in regionals were:

Outstanding Actress: Natalie Howard

Excellence in Set Design: Bryce Brewer, Noah Watson, Nate Taylor

Excellence in Ensemble and

Excellence in Acting: Njoki Tiagha

If that weren't enough, the department followed up their wins by presenting the play Clue back at home! Opening on December 1st in the Providence auditorium, our students performed the hilarious farce-meets-murder mystery five times in one weekend to packed audiences full of family, friends, fellow students, teachers and our community.

Based on the iconic 1985 Paramount movie which was inspired by the classic Hasbro board game, Clue began at a remote mansion, where six mysterious guests assembled for an unusual dinner party where murder and blackmail were on the menu. When their host turned up dead, they all became suspects. Led by Wadsworth – the butler, Miss Scarlett, Professor Plum, Mrs. White, Mr. Green, Mrs. Peacock and Colonel Mustard raced to find the killer as the body count stacked up. Clue was a fantastic comedy whodunit that kept the audience guessing every performance!

Directed by theatre teacher Jacki Altmeyer (Assisted by Em Neeriemer), with support from technical theatre teacher and technical director, Richard Turski, Clue showed off the talents of our students. There was also an understudy show on Dec 3rd at 3pm that allowed all of the understudies to perform in a show all their own! Key roles were as follows:

Ryan Kaplan: Wadsworth (Quinn Cole understudy)
Lillian Francisco: Yvette (Em Neeriemer understudy)
Gianna Mercado: Mrs. Scarlet (Monica Williams understudy)
Devan Hall: Mrs. Peacock (Megan Morrow understudy)
Njoki Tiagha: Mrs. White (Kate Brodie understudy)
Logan Amigo: Colonel Mustard (Billy Booe understudy)
Matthew Dinello: Professor Plum (Achilles Lee understudy)
Ben Doub: Mr. Green (Zacharie Pineda understudy)
Pippa Miller: Cook/Dancing Telegram (Sydney Stern understudy)
Billy Booe: Mr. Boddy (Hudson Blair understudy)
Stage Manager: Rylin Visintine
Costume Designer: Ramsey Lyric

Coming up this Spring!

The musical Sweeney Todd: The Demon Barber of Fleet Street will be presented March 24th-26th and March 31st-April 2nd!

Mark your calendars for this terrifying tale full of haunting melodies from Stephen Sondheim. It's sure to send a chill down your spine!

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Hello Providence Families,

As we near the end of the first semester, we would like to recap some of our most recent and memorable events. We appreciate all our students, staff, and other members of the Providence community for their continued support of the Leadership class and Student Government.

On October 15th, we held our “City-Lights” themed Homecoming dance. This year, we had a record-breaking number of 800 tickets sold. On the week of October 17th, we held our Spirit Week for Homecoming. We were delighted to see our staff and students in their creative costumes. On Friday, October 21st, we held our Pep Rally and hosted Garinger High School for our Homecoming football game. We had a great turnout, and our team won! At halftime, we crowned our Homecoming King Connor Drake and Homecoming Queen Briggs McCarter.

In early December, Providence Naval Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (NJROTC) and our Leadership class teamed up to run the United Service Organizations drive. We collected many donations such as ready-to-eat food items, individually packaged items, hygiene supplies for United States service members and military families alike.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

On December 14th, we held our Officer Prep workshop. We had over 170 students attend, and they spent the day learning about valuable leadership skills including authenticity, public speaking, goal-setting, team work, critical thinking, and more. Officer Prep was required for students to apply for the Leadership class. Information regarding applications was announced at Officer Prep. The Leadership class is a great way to get involved with the execution of important school events such as the ones recapped in this letter, and the ones listed below that will take place during the second semester.

We would also like to congratulate our fall sports teams on their successful seasons, and we appreciate all our students who came to cheer on their fellow Panther athletes. Currently, our basketball, wrestling, and swimming teams are in season. Make sure to come out and support your Panthers in the designated game theme(s)! Themes for our home basketball games are posted on the @ProvidenceEB instagram page, so make sure to follow to stay up to date on those and other school events!

As we progress into the second semester, we would like to introduce some of our upcoming events. We will be hosting our annual CANZ Student Hunger Drive and will be revealing our CANZ music video. We will also be having our Reverse Homecoming Spirit Week and our annual Dodgeball Tournament. Details for all these events will be updated through future MEWS newsletters, the @ProvidenceEB instagram page, and the Morning Roar. Please make sure to follow our Instagram to never miss an important event!

Once again, thank you to all members of our Providence family for your support in helping us plan and execute successful events. We could not do this without our amazing, unified community.

If you have any questions, please contact the Leadership advisor, Laura Bauer (lauram.bauer@cms.k12.nc.us).

ORCHESTRA

Mr. David Vergato, Providence High School Orchestra Director, has kept the Symphonic, Concert, and Chamber orchestras on the move! They kicked off the year with a fall concert on October 19th, then played at the Southern Christmas Show, and ended 2022 with the winter concert on December 14th.

Not only are our students getting out into the community to perform, but the musical community is coming in to work with our students at Providence. Faculty from Appalachian State University visited the Concert Orchestra and Chamber Orchestra in September and Calin Lupanu, Concertmaster of the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra, brought his chamber music quartet to work with the Symphonic Orchestra in October.

We want to congratulate six Providence High School musicians who were invited to spend a weekend in Winston-Salem in November for the North Carolina All-State Honors Orchestra: Joseph Chen, Sophia Kuncoro, Alan Shao, Sahana Raghavan, Ben Uslan, and Raechel Wu. Ten of our students have also been selected to join the CMS Honors Orchestra in January. Congratulations to: Natalie Haden, Sophia Kuncoro, Sahana Raghavan, Neal Rao, Rithika Saranavan, Brendon Hablutzel, Claire Mitchell, Jake Wei, Ben Uslan, and Jay Ponnada.

HOORAY TO OUR STUDENTS

Your Providence Student Teacher Organization is delighted to honor students who have made noteworthy accomplishments in community involvement inside or outside of school. These students have shown leadership or noteworthy support to their community. Please join us in congratulating these students on their accomplishments!

Congratulations to Andrew Fricano for earning the US Congressional Award's Gold Certificate, and Bronze Medal! The Congressional Award provides opportunities for young people to unleash their potential by achieving personal goals focused on volunteerism, character development, and fitness. Andrew has completed over 100 hours of volunteer service, 50 hours of physical fitness and an expedition that took two days and one night.

HOORAY TO OUR STUDENTS

Maia and Liam Campbell are two exceptional leaders of Kidz That Care. During the last few months, they organized and led over 30 volunteer events and service projects in support of several organizations including Carolina Refugee Resettlement Agency, Adopt A City Street Program, Loaves & Fishes and Second Harvest Food Bank, Baby Bundles, Classroom Central and many others. This past semester alone, they have jointly volunteered over 350 hours and engaged over 400 youth ages 5-17 and families in our events.

For their work and dedication, they were the recipients of several national Youth Service leadership awards including the Points of Light Year of Civic Learning Grant, America's Promise Alliance Youth Service Award, and the Karma for Kara National Youth Volunteer Grant.

They would love to have more Providence High School students join them at their events! More info is available at www.kidzthatcare.org or on our Facebook and Instagram Pages.

HOORAY TO OUR STUDENTS

During the summer of 2022, Tanvi Anandkumar (a Sophomore) had an opportunity to volunteer for a non-profit group called Potter's Hand in South India that work with gypsy and tribal communities. Before leaving for the trip, Tanvi collected old clothes, shoes, and books from the local community here in the United States and took them to India. She earned special recognition from the trustee of Potter's Hand for her outstanding effort.

Tanvi helped the children in South India with their school lessons, using her ballet experience to connect with them. Through this connection she was able to teach them some English.

Tanvi came home and started an Etsy store selling jewelry that the gypsy tribe made to help raise funds for their medical needs.

Her passion for community service has extended to the Charlotte community, where she has helped raise funds for at-risk children in Charlotte, and organized a musical event at the Matthews Health and Rehab center.

HORRAY TO OUR STUDENTS

Carlyle Kinlaw earned the highest rank in Boy Scouts on November 16, 2022. He is a third generation Eagle Scout in his family.

Carlyle is also a member of the Quill & Scroll Honor Society as well as the German Club.

Carlyle would like to thank Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Price for being a part of his "Journey to Eagle!"

Alena Beavers had her Eagle Court of Honor ceremony on September 10, 2022. She joins her two older brothers, who are also Eagle Scouts.

Alena built outdoor exercise areas for St. Michael's church in Matthews for her Eagle Project.

Alena is currently the Vice President of Communications in Venture Crew 1465, and has also served as a lifeguard and paddle board instructor at Camp Durant.

Eagle Scout is the highest achievement or rank attainable in the Scouts BSA program. This takes years of hard work, service, and determination. In addition, scouts must plan, organize and lead an extensive service project. Since its inception in 1911, only four percent of all scouts have attained this prestigious milestone.

Tanner Kolb recently earned his Eagle Rank as well. He is a member of Troop 116. Tanner started scouts as a Tiger Club when he was in first grade. He is a member of Order of the Arrow, which is the Boy Scouts' honor society. In addition, he is a member of Sea Scouts Ship 19 in Huntersville.

Tanner's Eagle Project was to build an outdoor play area for his middle school, Socrates Academy.

YOUR SUPPORT MAKES A HUGE IMPACT!

THANK YOU TO THE FAMILIES WHO HAVE DONATED SO FAR THIS YEAR TO THE IMPACT CAMPAIGN, PTSO'S MAIN FUNDRAISER. MONEY RAISED THROUGH YOUR DONATION ALLOWS US TO SUPPORT OUR PROVIDENCE COMMUNITY THROUGH CAMPUS IMPROVEMENTS, STAFF SUPPORT UPGRADES TO EDUCATION AND TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES, AND STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS, AMONG OTHER EFFORTS.

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE TO DONATE!!

SHOULD YOU WISH TO MAKE A DONATION, PLEASE DO SO THROUGH PAY4SCHOOLSTUFF.COM. ALSO ANNOUNCING: WE NOW ACCEPT STOCK DONATIONS AS WELL! EMAIL PHSCAPITALCAMPAIGN@GMAIL.COM WITH ANY QUESTIONS.
